IN RECOGNITION OF MR. DEAN
JANEWAY

HON. FRANK PALLONE, JR.

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, October 5, 2011

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Mr. Dean Janeway, President and Chief Operating Officer of Wakefern Food Corporation, on the occasion of his retirement. Mr. Janeway has dedicated forty years of service to the Wakefern Food Corporation and has been a catalyst for the organization's expansion and advancement throughout the Northeast. His outstanding commitment is undoubtedly worthy of this body's recognition.

Mr. Dean Janeway's commitment to Wakefern Food Corporation is a testament to his outstanding character. Mr. Janeway joined the Wakefern team in the 1960s as a Junior Accountant. He later earned a position as Executive Vice President before being named President and Chief Operating Officer in 1995. As a member of the Wakefern team, Mr. Janeway took every opportunity to learn the intricate aspects of the business. He has overseen the largest expansion in the organization's history and managed the advancement to become the premier supermarket retailer in the Northeast. Under Mr. Janeway's direction, Wakefern has also experienced significant expansion in its membership base resulting in the growth of its retail sales by more than 150 percent. Mr. Janeway also continues to direct Wakefern's corporate giving endeavors, spearheading Wakefern's fight against hunger.

In addition to his professional responsibilities at Wakefern, Mr. Janeway served as a member of various prestigious boards including the Board of Directors of the Eastern Frosted Foods Association, EFFA, and is past President of the Eastern Perishable Products Association, EPPA. Among other prestigious positions, he has also admirably served on the Board of Directors of the national Grocers Association and is a member of the Board of the national Co-op Bank. Mr. Janeway presently sits on the Board of Directors of Insure-Rite, Ltd and in 2009 began his reign as Chairman of the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey's Finance Committee.

As a result of his outstanding accomplishments, Mr. Janeway is the recipient of various prestigious awards including the Modern Grocer's annual Publisher's Award for Lifetime Achievement, the New Jersey Food Council's Lifetime Achievement Award and the Food Marketing Institute's Herbert Hoover Award. His humanitarian work was honored by the Special Olympics of New Jersey in 2009 and earlier this year he was recognized by the Archdiocese of Newark at their annual Business and Labor Recognition Reception for his support for various charitable causes. Mr. Janeway is a graduate of Rutgers University, a father of three adult children and currently resides in South Mantoloking, New Jersey with his wife MaryAnn.

Mr. Speaker, once again, please join me in thanking Mr. Dean Janeway for his outstanding contribution to the Wakefern Food Corporation and wishing him the best as he begins to enter the next chapter of his life.

A CONGRESSIONAL RESOLUTION
RECOGNIZING MACY REYNOLDS ON HER INDUCTION INTO THE
GREENE COUNTY WOMEN'S HALL
OF FAME

HON. STEVE AUSTRIA

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, October 5, 2011

Mr. AUSTRIA. Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the people of Ohio's Seventh Congressional District, I rise today to recognize Ms. Macy Reynolds for her induction into the Greene County Women's Hall of Fame.

Ms. Macy Reynolds along with five other candidates was from a pool of many worthy women to receive this honor, and thus, she was nominated for her great endeavors in the field of Horticulture.

Ms. Reynolds, a teacher by profession, taught in Mad River Schools and as an adjunct at the University of Dayton. Becoming a Master Gardner in 1998, she has taught many educational programs and volunteered in many public gardens all over Greene County. An Ohio certified insect, weed and tree specialist, Macy has removed invasive species from various locations around Greene County while also working hard to restore prairies by harvesting and planting seeds in their natural areas. Macy also put together an educational program for the Miami Valley Juvenile Rehabilitation Center in Xenia. The resident youth attend gardening classes, plant and care for the garden. The produce from these gardens are then donated to the local Fish Food Pantry. She is also a founding member of the Midwest Native Plant Society and has worked to maintain the Women's Park in Yellow Springs where she also serves as secretary of the Tree Committee. Ms. Macy also was Greene County's first representative to the Heritage Garden Ambassador Program.

Thus, with great pride, I congratulate Ms. Macy Reynolds for her exemplary service to Greene County and extend best wishes for the future.

BISHOP DUNNE HIGH SCHOOL

HON. EDDIE BERNICE JOHNSON

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, October 5, 2011

Ms. EDDIE BERNICE JOHNSON of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Bishop Dunne Catholic School in Dallas, Texas for 50 years of educational excellence. Bishop Dunne is a coeducational, college preparatory school which serves grades 6 through 12.

The students here are our best and our brightest, and with encouragement and support from their principals and teachers, these students are achieving remarkable success. Because of the high quality education the students at Bishop Dunne and other schools like it are receiving, they can have the opportunity to live the American dream—to do anything they want to do, to go on to a great college or university of their choice, and to pursue any career path that sparks their interest.

In 1961, Bishop Dunne Catholic School began under the name Our Lady of Good Counsel High School. The Sisters of St. Mary of Namur had established two girls' high schools in Dallas; Our Lady of Good Counsel Academy in Oak Cliff in 1901 and St. Edward's Academy in East Dallas in 1912. At the request of the Diocese of Dallas, the Sisters agreed to close the two high schools and invite students from them to be part of a new entity, a diocesan sponsored high school. In 1963, the name of the school was officially changed to Bishop Dunne in honor of one of the first bishops of Dallas. In 1969, the school officially became coeducational.

Core values Bishop Dunne instills in its students and counts as a priority are spiritual growth and faith development; academic excellence in an innovative and creative environment; formation in a positive and nurturing environment; commitment to fellowship, social justice and community service; appreciation of individual uniqueness and value; commitment to social and civic responsibilities and to global leadership and; Service to a multi-cultural community.

Mr. Speaker, my community and our country benefits immensely from the educational excellence Bishop Dunne Catholic School continues to provide. I congratulate them on 50 years of service.

MOURNING THE LOSS OF REV.
FRED SHUTTLESWORTH AND RE-FLECTING ON HIS LEGACY

HON. CHARLES B. RANGEL

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, October 5, 2011

Mr. RANGEL. Mr. Speaker, I am deeply saddened to learn today of the passing of a great man, Reverend Fred Shuttlesworth, who was truly an American hero and a committed civil rights legend. His life and dedication fighting in Birmingham, Alabama, on behalf of the segregated black community will never be forgotten.

The Reverend helped create the Southern Christian Leadership Conference with Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and Ralph Abernathy and served as secretary for several years. During his lifetime, Rev. Shuttlesworth was beaten and arrested several times for his activism. His church and home had even been bombed, but he persevered in his struggle. The many sit-ins and boycotts he led helped advance a people and a nation forward from the evils of segregation to enjoy many of the freedoms we have today.

As we reflect on the sad passing of one of the greatest inspirations of the Civil Rights movement, I hope everyone back in his hometown, Birmingham, Alabama, and across the nation reflects on his legacy with gratitude and admiration. I speak on behalf of all the people of New York's 15th Congressional District when I say we are all thankful for what Rev. Shuttlesworth accomplished.
